My Friend is a Raven is a game I had been waiting and dreaming on for a long time. This game made me feel at home, I couldve played it all day! The gameplay is simple but really fun to play, It feels and plays like you have been playing for an eternity because of how well imation quality its is. It also has many many options, and a amazing story. If you play a game like this you have to give it a try it wont disappoint!Game "My Friend is a Raven" Artwork: My Friend is a Raven is a game where you play as a character (that can fly) called raven. She travels around a fantasy world (inspired by real fantasy) with an obnoxious (lol) partner called Raven. Raven comments and jokes with you at times along the way. The art in my Friend is a Raven is absolutely superb, and there really arent a lot of games out there that look like this, It looks and feels 100% real. They use the same techniques that real painters use to create the most beautiful, and stunning pieces of art! So if you like art then you should definitely pick this up.Gameplay "My Friend is a Raven" Soundtrack: If you dont like music then youre surely missing out on a masterpiece, This game has beautiful music (you cant really call it music) that will set your heart aglow and make you feel epic, Amazing. Beautiful, breathtaking music. I cannot wait to see what music they are going to make for their next game!Gameplay "My Friend is a Raven" English Voice Cast: The english voice actors really make this game, and its truly one of the best english voice acting I have ever listened to, So many characters to choose from, so pick your favorite and you will enjoy. The Voices in this game are fantastic, the way they talk is really well written, and they sound just like the characters you create to play through their eyes. So if youve ever wanted to play a game from your childhood you should try My Friend is a Raven!Gameplay "My Friend is a Raven" Story: I must say that while playing this game, I lost myself in the story, This game story takes you on a real epic journey. It has so many characters in it to meet, and I loved it. It felt like a real story with real people, only in a game of course. But the fact that there are real people behind the characters that you meet is amazing, and this

What's new in My Friend Is A Raven:

- Part 3 by Cathy Crosby This story is one of friendship that spans two centuries and has brought me a large circle of friends who are also like elders, laughing in knowledge and loving with wisdom beyond imagining. Chapter 1 Not all The Raven were of the business Karleen Kohlin awoke to a voice she had not heard since her eight years in the Cloistered convent. "So this is your plan?" "Yes, Ma'am." She had answered and rolled over in bed to see Erin Solstice standing at the foot of the bed wearing her nightgown and robe. "Maybe it would be better if I wrote something for you. You can't write anything down of value if you sleep in. But this might get you going, that's for sure," She said, lifting a piece of paper with a black crayon and a box of crayons. "Lady Erin? That...is quite extraordinary in itself." "I know, that's why I'm going to give you something else to write besides this. What I've written, I've written for public consumption to be sure. Now what I'm about to give you isn't a public thing, and it's not meant to be shown to anybody unless they are truly prepared to hear about such things, because such things are unheard of and unseen." "I am quite capable of that." "No, but I think so...that's not the point. I'm giving you this because I don't want anybody to misunderstand it, or misinterpret it. You may write a paper on it and I will give you all the necessary materials to do so." "If such things exist?" "They do, but they're not common knowledge, at least not here in the Free Cities. They don't often surface, especially outside of a few isolated sightings and such which are even rarer. I think you're the first person to really begin to understand what's going on. You may be the first person to write something on it and make it common knowledge." "What are you referring to?" "
